

Building People Advantage for Business Sustainability

才華盡展 基業長青

31st HKIHRM Annual Conference ▾ Nov 22-23, 2011

Over 1,400 delegates and visitors have attended the HKIHRM 31st Annual Conference and Exhibition which held successfully on November 22-23, 2011 (Tue-Wed) at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre.

Opening Address: Guest of Honour

Professor Tony Chan,
President of the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology

Plenary Sessions

CEO Plenary: Building People Advantage for Business Sustainability

Facilitator and speakers:
(From left to right)
Steve Tait,
Dr Ricky Szeto,
Stuart Harrison,
Anthony Wu, GBS, JP

Panel speakers of the CEO Plenary share views on building people advantage.

Guru Plenary: Progressing from Chinese Manager to Global Leader

Speaker:
Dr Frank Gallo from Aon Hewitt, Greater China

The sharing by Dr Gallo focused on the future of Chinese leaders as Chinese companies go out into the world and through Hong Kong.

Senior HR Forum: Building People Advantage for Business Sustainability - the HR Challenges and Opportunities

Facilitator and speakers:
(From left to right)
Virginia Choi, Akiko Takahashi,
NiQ Lai, Michael Gu

Seasoned HR leaders shared their practical experiences on how to sustain and drive corporate success by building people advantage in an organisation.

Concurrent Sessions

The 2-day Conference, comprising 23 concurrent sessions, brings an impressive line-up of senior business leaders, HR practitioners and professionals from the business community, academia, and consultancies, as well as government units and non-governmental organisations (NGOs).

Exhibition

An exhibition also run concurrently was featuring some 40 reputable service providers demonstrating the latest ideas and solutions in HR products and services.

Other Highlights

Partnership with HR People and Strategy

- Signed Memorandum of Understanding at HKIHRM's Annual Conference

Lucky Draw

