The Hong Kong Institute of Human Resource Management Will Appoint New Executive Director

[27 January 2022 – Hong Kong] The Hong Kong Institute of Human Resource Management (HKIHRM) announced the appointment of Ms Kandy Lui as Executive Director effective from 1 February 2022.

Ms Margaret Cheng, JP, President of the HKIHRM, commented on the appointment, “Kandy has been with the Institute for nearly ten years. In her previous position as Head of Member Services & Programme Management, she has played an instrumental role in enriching the Institute’s services and broadening its membership base. With her passion to serve the HR community and understanding of members’ needs, she is poised to lead the Institute in charting new territory.”

Ms Lui has nearly 25 years of experience in membership services, event management, and corporate communications. Prior to joining the HKIHRM, she held a key position in the membership division at the Federation of Hong Kong Industries for over five years. During her tenure, she has built strong connections with stakeholders across industry sectors. Ms Lui graduated from the Hong Kong Polytechnic University and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree.

“I would like to take this opportunity to thank Ms Teresa Lee, our Institute’s outgoing Executive Director, for her dedication and contributions to the HKIHRM during her four years’ tenure. Under her leadership, the Institute has been modernized with new digital platform, social media footprint, virtual events, and most recently an e-journal. We wish Teresa a fulfilling life in retirement and all the best in her future endeavours,” said Ms Cheng.
